All amounts paid in on shares of any kind together with any interest credited thereto to the date thereof shall be paid to such withdrawing members as their funds become available and only after deducting therefrom any amounts due from such member to the Credit Union.

Rule 8: MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

8.1 The Annual General Meeting of the members shall be held each year at a time and place to be decided by the Board.

8.2 Special General Meetings of the Credit Union:

8.2.1 May be called by the Chair of the Board at any time; or

8.2.2 May be called by the Chief Executive Officer if requisitioned on the written request of 200 members of the Credit Union; or

8.2.3 Must be called by the Credit Union if it is required to do so pursuant to the Trust Deed and any meeting called by the Credit Union under this Rule 8.2.3 shall be convened and held in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Trust Deed.

8.3 Notice of Meeting

8.3.1 Subject to Rule 8.3.2, at least 10 days before the date of any annual or special meeting of the members, the Chief Executive Officer shall cause notice thereof to be given to each member, either by being mailed to each member at his or her address as the same appears on the records of the Credit Union or by being published in any journal, magazine, newsletter, newspaper or publication circulated to members of the Police or published to any Credit Union website or otherwise transmitted by electronic means to members.

8.3.2 Each meeting that is called by the Credit Union pursuant to Rule 8.2.2 shall be called and convened in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Trust Deed or the Act.

8.4 The Chair of a meeting convened under Rule 8.2.1 shall be the Chair of the Board of the Credit Union for the time being or, in their absence, the Vice Chair. Should neither of the above be present at such a meeting then the Chair shall be elected by a simple majority of those present.

The Chair of a meeting convened by the Supervisor under Rule 8.2.3 shall be a person nominated by the Supervisor or such other person as may be appointed in that behalf by the Members present at the meeting.

The Supervisor, through its duly authorised representatives may attend any meeting of Members (whether convened under Rule 8.1 or Rule 8.2.1, .2 or Rule 8.2.2) and shall have the right to speak and be heard at any such meeting, whether in relation to a matter arising during the course of business of the meeting or any other matter that the Supervisor wishes to raise at the meeting.

8.5 The order of business at the Annual General Meeting shall be:

- a) Ascertainment that a quorum is present
- b) Presentation for approval or correction of the minutes of the last meeting
- c) Report of Directors
- d) Report of the -Chief Executive Officer
- e) Financial Report
- f) Auditor's Report
- g) Any other Reports
- h) Any amendment to Rules
- i) Elections of Directors
- j) New Business.

8.6 Suspension of order of business

The members assembled at any annual meeting may suspend the above order of business upon a two-thirds vote of the members present at the meeting. Unless otherwise specified in these Rules, fifteen members shall constitute a quorum at annual or special general meetings. If no quorum is present an adjournment may be taken to a date not fewer than fourteen or more than twenty-eight days thereafter and the members present at any such adjournment shall constitute a quorum regardless of the number of members present.

The same notice for the adjourned meeting shall be as for the original meeting, and such notice shall be given not fewer than ten days prior to the date of the adjourned meeting.

Rule 9: ELECTIONS

9.1 Subject to clause 9.2, the term of office for an elected Director shall be three years. Directors shall serve until close of business of the Annual General Meeting at which they are due to retire by rotation in accordance with Rule 9.3.

9.2 If any elected Director vacates their office during their three year term (Original Director), the Board may:

- a) Appoint a new director for the remainder of the Original Director's three-year term; or
- b) Hold an election for a new director for the remainder of the Original Director's three-year term; or
- c) Not fill the vacancy until the Original Director's three year term is concluded.

9.3 At each Annual General Meeting of the Credit Union, Directors shall retire by the rotation of:

- a) Directors having served a three year term since last elected; and-
- b) Directors appointed pursuant to Rule 9.2(a) or (b), Appointed Replacement Directors at the next Annual General Meeting following appointment having served the remainder of the Original Director's three year term.

Transitional Arrangements

9.3.1 The term of office of Directors elected in 2024 will expire in 2027 at which time four directorships will be vacant. To ensure an orderly rotation of directors:

- a) At the 2027 Annual General Meeting the highest and second highest polling (votes) directors will be appointed for the full three year term retiring in 2030;
- b) The third highest polling director (votes) will be appointed for a two year term retiring in 2029;
- c) The fourth highest polling director (votes) will be appointed for a one year term retiring in 2028; and
- d) If no election is required then each eligible director will be appointed for the length of term described in Rules 9.3.1 a), b) and c) by way of drawing lots.

This Rule 9.3.1 will expire on 1 January 2028.

9.3.2 Should any director elected at the 2024 Annual General Meeting vacate their office prior to the 2027 Annual General Meeting then that vacancy will be filled by an election in 2025 or 2026. The replacement director appointed in 2025 or 2026 shall be appointed for a full three year term and Rules 9.3.1 c) and d) will not apply. This Rule 9.3.2 will expire one working day following the date of the 2027 Annual General Meeting.

~~9.2~~ A Retiring Director shall be eligible for re-election unless otherwise ineligible.

9.43 Election of Directors

The Credit Union may permit voting in the following ways;

- i. by post and/or
- ii. by electronic means

The following procedure shall be followed for the conduct of a ballot to fill the vacated offices. The voting paper may be actual or electronic.

- a) The Board shall, at least ninety days prior to the Annual General meeting, appoint a Returning Officer and two scrutineers. If the Returning Officer requires assistance in the carrying out of any aspect of the duties set out herein or is unable by reason of illness or other sufficient cause to attend to such duties, the Returning Officer may appoint one or more Deputy Returning Officers (who shall not be Directors of the Credit Union) to carry out these duties. Should electronic voting be allowed the Returning Officer may appoint a Deputy Returning Officer to manage the electronic voting process.
- b) For every election the Returning Officer shall prepare a roll of electors, which shall consist of the names alphabetically arranged of persons duly registered as members eligible to vote and the members Credit Union account number. Such roll to be prepared and closed off as at the date of closure of nominations.
- c) At least sixty days prior to the Annual General Meeting the Returning Officer shall call for nominations for positions that become vacant due to retirement by rotation or withdrawal for any other reason of Directors.
- d) The notice calling for nominations for candidates for positions of Director shall specify a day not less than fourteen or more than twenty eight days after the publication of the notice as the last day for the receipt of nominations of candidates at the address of the office of the Returning Officer where all nominations must be received.
- e) In order that a person may become a candidate for election to the position of Director that person must complete a nomination form prescribed by the Board including any necessary requirements to comply with New Zealand law and shall be nominated by not fewer than two persons entitled to vote. Those persons who shall sign the nomination paper and, after having obtained the consent in writing of the person so nominated, shall forward or lodge the nomination to the Returning Officer at the address of their office so as to be in the Returning Officer's hands before four o'clock on the afternoon of the last day for receipt of nomination of candidates.
- f) If the number of persons who are duly nominated does not exceed the number of Directors to be so elected, the Returning Officer shall declare such persons duly elected as Directors at the next Annual General Meeting.
- g) If at the closure of the nomination of candidates the number of candidates for Directors exceeds the number of Directors to be elected, the Returning Officer shall appoint a day (being a day not less than five days before the date of the Annual General Meeting) on which the poll shall close and the result of the election of Directors shall be ascertained.

- h) Every poll shall close at four o'clock in the afternoon of the day so appointed.
- i) If a poll is required to be taken, the Returning Officer shall ensure that voting papers are distributed to every member who is 16 years or older at the date that the poll closes either by post or by electronic means.
- j) Candidates may submit background notes to the Returning Officer and on receipt of such notes the Returning Officer shall distribute such notes with all voting papers.
- k) Voting papers shall contain:
  - i. Instructions on how many Director positions are to be elected in each poll
  - ii. The names in full alphabetical order of all candidates for election as Directors
  - iii. Instructions on how to clearly signify the candidate or candidates for whom the member wishes to vote
  - iv. The member's name and Credit Union account number
  - v. Address of Returning Officer to whom voting papers are to be returned by post or with instructions for electronic voting
  - vi. Closure date of the poll.
- l) The Returning Officer shall be responsible for security and safekeeping of all voting papers whether received by post or electronically until they have been opened examined and counted.
- m) Postal Voting

The Returning Officer shall, at four o'clock in the afternoon of the day appointed for closing the poll or as soon as practicable thereafter and at their office, in the presence of the appointed scrutineers, proceed to open, mark off voting papers received against the roll of electors, examine the voting papers and count the number of votes received by each candidate.

On completion of counting and the verification of the count of the votes received by each candidate by the scrutineers, the Returning Officer shall make out and sign a written statement, countersigned by the scrutineers, containing the numbers of the votes cast for each candidate and shall at the same time within the written statement declare the names of the candidates elected.

Such written statement shall be sealed in an envelope and delivered to the Chair.

Electronic Voting

The Returning Officer or Deputy Returning Officer shall, at four o'clock in the afternoon of the day appointed for closing the poll or as soon as practicable thereafter and at their office, in the presence of any appointed scrutineers proceed to process the electronically received votes against the roll of electors and count the number of votes received by each candidate.

On completion of counting and the verification of the count of the votes received by each candidate, the Returning Officer or Deputy Returning Officer shall make out and sign a written statement, countersigned by the scrutineers, containing the numbers of the votes cast for each candidate and shall at the same time within the written statement declare the names of the candidates elected.

Such written statement shall be sealed in an envelope and delivered to the Chair.

Postal and Electronic Voting

The Returning Officer may choose to offer both postal and electronic voting for an election of Directors. The results of each voting method will be scrutinised to eliminate any duplicate votes cast by a single member by using both postal and electronic means.

On completion of counting and the verification of the count of the votes received by each candidate, the Returning Officer shall make out and sign a written statement, countersigned by the scrutineers, containing the numbers of the votes cast for each candidate and shall at the same time within the written statement declare the names of the candidates elected.

Such written statement shall be sealed in an envelope and delivered to the Chair.

- n) The counting of votes shall be by the first past the post method as follows:

Each candidate shall receive one vote as indicated on each voting paper, the candidates elected shall be those candidates who receive the highest number of votes in accordance with the number of vacancies to be filled.

- o) At the examination of the voting papers every voting paper shall be rejected which:

- i. Does not clearly indicate the voting member's name and Credit Union account number
  - ii. Contains indications of the voting member having identified or voted for more candidates than positions to be filled
  - iii. Is manifestly irregular; or
  - iv. Is so imperfectly executed that the intention of the voter cannot with certainty be ascertained.
- p) The names of the persons elected shall be declared by the Chair at the Annual General Meeting and in such other place as the Board may determine.

Rule 10: BOARD OF DIRECTORS

10.1 The Board of Directors shall consist of:

- a) Elected Directors
  - i. Six Directors.
- b) Non-Elected Directors
  - i. Up to Two non-elected Directors, appointed by the Board on terms and conditions determined by the Board, with skills that add value to the Board and the Credit Union as a whole, subject to the non-elected Directors meeting suitability requirements under New Zealand law.
- c) Board Observers
  - i. The President of the New Zealand Police Association (Inc.) or the nominee of the Board of Directors of the New Zealand Police Association (Inc.), which nominee must be a member of the New Zealand Police Association (Inc.).
  - ii. The President of the New Zealand Police Leaders' Guild or the nominee of the National Executive of the New Zealand Police Leaders' Guild which nominee must be a member of the New Zealand Police Leaders' Guild.
  - iii. Subject to the approval of the Board, the nominee of each organisation referred to in Rule 7.2.5 and Rule 7.2.6, which nominee must be a member of the organisation they represent, and a member of the Credit Union.

Every Board Observer shall be entitled to have notice of all meetings of the Board, shall have speaking rights at those meetings and shall be included in all parts of a formal meeting of the Board, apart from informal director only time, provided that a Board Observer shall not have voting rights or be counted in the quorum of a meeting of the Board.

- d) Any replacement Directors appointed pursuant to Rule ~~9.240-4~~.
- e) Any associate Directors appointed pursuant to Rule 10.12.

10.2 The term of office:—

- i. ~~On election, the term of office for an elected Director is set out in Rule 9.1. shall be for three years. Directors shall serve until close of business of the General Meeting at which they are due to retire by rotation.~~
- ii. ~~On appointment, the term of office for a non-elected Director shall be three years.~~
- iii. ~~As from the date of incorporation of the Credit Union, the total number of terms that a Director or non-elected Director can serve on the Board is to be no more than three terms whether consecutive or not, but ignoring terms served prior to incorporation.~~

10.2.1 Directors (whether elected or non-elected) may serve on the Board for a maximum of nine years, but ignoring terms served prior to incorporation.

10.3 Each elected Director of the Board retiring by rotation shall be eligible for re-election unless otherwise ineligible under these Rules.

10.3.1 Any member as defined in Rule 7.1.1, with the exception of any employee of the Credit Union, shall be eligible for nomination to an elected position as Director.

~~10.4—Any vacancy of an elected Director occurring between General Meetings may be filled by appointment by the majority vote of the members of the Board. Any officer so appointed as a replacement Director shall hold office only for the period up to and including the next election of Directors.~~

10.~~45~~ The Board shall meet not less than six times each year, the date and time of which shall be selected by the members of the Board.

10.~~56~~ The Chief Executive Officer shall call a special meeting of the Board upon the written request of any three members of the Board. The Chief Executive Officer shall fix a time and place of special meetings unless the Board by resolution prescribes otherwise.

10.~~76~~ Notice of all meetings of the Board shall be given in such manner as the Board shall from time to time by resolution prescribe.

10.78 At least four elected Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting thereof but fewer than a quorum may adjourn from time to time until a quorum is in attendance. Written notice of an adjourned meeting need not be given to the Directors.

10.98 If a Director fails to attend regular meetings of the Board for three consecutive meetings or otherwise fails to perform any of the duties delivered upon them as Director, their office may be declared vacant by the Board and the vacancy filled as herein provided.

10.940 Appointment of Chair and Vice Chair:

- a) At the first meeting of the Board following elections, the Board, on a majority vote, shall appoint a Chair and Vice Chair.
- b) No person shall be eligible to stand for the positions of Chair or Vice Chair unless they have served one term as an elected Director. In the event of no member having served sufficient time to fulfil this criteria, the Board themselves, on a majority vote, shall appoint, a Chair or Vice Chair as required from within the elected Directors to serve until one or more of the elected Directors fulfils the qualifying criteria.

10.104 A non-elected Director of the Board shall be ineligible to stand for the positions of Chair or Vice Chair. A non-elected Director may not also simultaneously hold the position of an elected Director.

10.112 The Board may appoint associate directors, who meet suitability requirements under New Zealand law or advisory committees on such terms and conditions as the Board may decide in its sole discretion. Every associate director shall be entitled to have notice of all meetings of the Board and shall have speaking rights at those meetings provided that an associate director shall not have voting rights or be counted in the quorum of a meeting of the Board.

Rule 11: DISQUALIFICATION OF DIRECTORS

All such positions as Directors or Board Observers shall be vacated if the Director or Board Observer:

- 11.1 Ceases to be a member of the Credit Union, in the case of an elected Director; or
- 11.2 Becomes bankrupt or makes any arrangement or composition with their creditors generally; or
- 11.3 Becomes mentally disordered under the Mental Health (Compulsory Assessment and Treatment) Act 1992 or becomes a person subject to a property order or personal order under the Protection of Personal and Property Rights Act 1988; or
- 11.4 No longer meets the suitability criteria under New Zealand law; or 11.5 Resigns their office by writing to the Credit Union.

Rule 11A: OFFICERS APPOINTED BY SUPERVISOR

The provisions of this Rule 11A shall apply and have full force and effect notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these Rules.

  - (a) The Supervisor shall be entitled, by notice in writing to the Credit Union, to remove and appoint Directors in the circumstances specified in the Trust Deed. Any such appointment or removal shall be effected by written notice from the Supervisor to the Credit Union.
  - (b) The Supervisor shall also be entitled to appoint a person to attend meetings of the Board as an observer in the circumstances set out in the Trust Deed and any such appointee shall be entitled to receive the same information as the Directors and shall be entitled to speak and be heard at meetings of the Board.
2. A Director appointed by the Supervisor under Rule 11A.1(a) shall vacate their office:
  - (a) if they become bankrupt or makes any arrangement or composition with their creditors generally; or
  - (b) if they become mentally disordered under the Mental Health (Compulsory Assessment and Treatment) Act 1992 or becomes a person subject to a property order or personal order under the Protection of Personal and Property Rights Act 1988; or
  - (c) if they resign their office by notice in writing to the Credit Union; or
  - (d) if they are removed from office by written notice from the Supervisor to the Credit Union; or
  - (e) at the conclusion of a meeting called under Rule 11A.5 or Rule 11A.7.
3. Directors appointed by the Supervisor under Rule 11A.1(a) shall not be subject to retirement under Rule 9.
4. If, pursuant to the Trust Deed the Supervisor no longer has the right to appoint Directors, the Supervisor shall, within one month of such situation occurring, given written notice of that fact to the Members (Notice Date). With effect from the Notice Date the non-elected officers referred to in Rule 10.1(b) shall be deemed to be appointed to the Board.
5. If the next Annual General Meeting cannot be held within 100 days of the Notice Date, the Credit Union shall call a Special General Meeting (SGM) within such 100 day period. All of the Directors appointed by the Supervisor under Rule 11A.1(a) and who are still in office shall retire with effect from the conclusion of that SGM.

6. If the next Annual General Meeting can be held within 100 days of the Notice Date, it shall be held as soon as practicable after the Notice Date but late enough to ensure that the Directors can be elected in accordance with Rules 8,9 and 10. At such Annual General Meeting all of the Directors appointed by the Supervisor under Rule 11A.1, and who are still in office, shall retire with effect from the conclusion of the meeting.

Rule 11B: STATUS OF SUPERVISOR AND THE ABILITY TO GIVE DIRECTIONS

1. Any directions given by the Supervisor to the Board under the powers conferred on the Supervisor in the Trust Deed shall be given effect to by each Director and be binding on all members.
2. The Credit Union is authorised to appoint from time to time by deed, in a form to be approved by the board of the Supervisor, each of the Supervisor's officers for the time being severally to be the Credit Union's attorney or attorneys for such purposes and with such powers, authorities and discretions and for such period and subject to such conditions as the Board may think fit, and any such powers of attorney may contain such provisions for the protection and convenience of persons dealing with any such attorney as the board of the Supervisor, thinks fit and may also authorise any such attorney to delegate all or any of the powers, authorities and discretions vested in them.

Rule 12: CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

The duties of a Chief Executive Officer shall include:

- 12.1 To act as Secretary of the Credit Union.
- 12.2 To ensure that an accurate recording of minutes of meetings is maintained.
- 12.3 Give notice of all meetings, and
- 12.4 Supply to any Member on demand a copy of the current registered Rules of the Credit Union
